1. The railroad line from Gdansk (Danzig) to Gdynia now has four tracks. Two of the tracks have been electrified. All tracks are standard gauge.
2. Two standard gauge tracks at present lead from Gdynia to Wejherowo. Work is commencing on two more tracks which will be electrified. These will also be standard gauge.
3. A double track broad gauge line runs from Kaliningrad (Koenigsberg) to Elblag (Elbing) for steam trains.
- 5 4. The broad gauge track Lvov-Krakow-Wroclaw (Breslau) is about to be changed to standard gauge as far as Przemysl. This is a double track, which was changed from standard gauge to broad just after the war.1

Comment. This line has been previously reported as broad gauge from Lvov to Przemysl only. The section from Przemysl to Wroclaw has never been reported as anything but standard gauge.
